For a complete listing of available training opportunities across Alabama, follow the link to our website

Visit Our Website

FreightCar America - Cherokee

AIDT is seeking applicants for the following pre-employment training programs to be conducted in Muscle Shoals:

- Quality Assurance Team Members
- Production Team Members

Graduates of the program will qualify for employment with FreightCar America, a premier producer of rail cars of all types for the domestic and international markets. FreightCar provides full benefits for its employees, including medical, prescription, dental and vision insurance, 401k, paid vacation and tuition assistance.

For More Information, Click Here

Maritime Training Center - Mobile

Need to know how to properly complete job applications, write a resume and dress for success? You'll learn these things and more at the FREE one-day Interview Skills classes AIDT will offer in May.

Applications will be accepted from now until April 17th for day or night classes to be held at the Maritime Training Center in Mobile. For more information and to apply, click on one of these links:

- Interview Skills Day Class
- Interview Skills Night Class

Airbus Americas

Airbus Americas in Mobile is seeking a Logistics Coordinator. To qualify, you need a minimum of three years’ experience in supply chain and logistics in an international company (preferably aviation) and a degree in Industrial Engineering, Business Administration or Supply Chain Logistics (or a combination of degree and experience).

For More Information, Click Here